OFFENSE

OFF BALL –> Cuts to the rim and off-ball play. Backdoors from the baseline + cuts from the wing. Very physical on the offensive glass.

DRIVES –> Very vertical with both hands, with a good first step. Likes to finish through contact. Not comfortable shooting off the dribble: go under in PNR

Good passer, especially running sets

DEFENSE

Better defender off the ball than on the ball. Disciplined with the rules. Can switch when needed or in emergency situations

OFFENSE

Three-level scorer

PNR HANDLER –> Against drop coverage he can get to the rim, but he is less comfortable against hedge. Can play with both hands, vertical going left.

OFF SCREEN –> Very smart reader, especially on flares. Coming off vertical screens (pin down, elevator, etc.) he looks for the three. On flares he is smart enough to curl and find the advantage. Will take end-of-possession shots

DEFENSE

Tries to hide and stay out of the action. Poor PNR defender

OFFENSE

PNR HANDLER - Poor passer in PnR, plays to score. Struggles a lot against aggressive coverages. Uses the snake dribble, can shoot off the dribble. Very vertical going right: watch the reject.

CLOSE OUTS - Prefers to attack going left.

DEFENSE

POOR 1-ON-1 DEFENDER - Poor defender on closeouts, tends to bite on pump fakes.

OFFENSE

PNR HANDLER - Can play with both hands. Vertical attacking the rim. Left-handed but attacks well going right, especially off the first step.

PULL-UP JUMPERS - Better shooter off the dribble than off the catch. Good shooter off the punch drag. Will take the last shots.

OFFENSE

ROLE PLAYER - LEFT-HANDED

CLOSE OUT - Spot-up shooting is his first option. Can hit open shots, especially from the left side. If he attacks a closeout going left, he is very vertical to the rim. Going right, he looks for the pull-up.

OFF BALL - Does not create points on his own. Disciplined, follows the team structure. Very good spacing and off-ball movement.

OFFENSE

PnR ROLL MAN - No shooting range. Struggles to create his own shot, but is disciplined finishing the actions his teammates create.
Better on the left side of the floor, plays over his left shoulder (finishing with the right). Poor left-hand finisher.
Can attack closeouts from the top in out actions or from pick and pop, especially against opposing 5s.

DEFENSE

VERSATILE AND MOBILE DEFENDER - Can switch or play aggressive PnR coverages.

OFFENSE

SPOT UP - Quick shooting mechanics, especially on threes. Better shooter off the catch. When he attacks a closeout, he goes right and tends to finish with a floater or a jumper.

OFF SCREEN - Lots of 4-5 actions. Good shooter off the flare, punishing the sagging 5. They look for him for open shots, not to attack the rim.

OFFENSE

POP + T3 + CLOSE OUTS - Three-point shooter, especially effective from the top. Plays inside but can come off off-ball screens. The three is his first option.
Can attack closeouts after a pump fake. Can play with both hands, with a variety of finishes.
OFFENSIVE REBOUND - Crashes the offensive glass.

OFFENSE

PnR ROLLER - Always a roller, very good screener. Reads the screening angle well. Good finisher on passes under the rim. Tends to finish with the right hand.

OFFENSIVE REBOUNDER - Physical in his positioning to attack the offensive glass.
